

Do Whatever He tells you (Jn 2:1-11)

Today's message that God gives to us is entitled "Do whatever He tells you." These are the words that Mary has spoken to the servants. And it is a confession of her faith. Mary said, "Whatever He tells you to do, you must do so. Then if you do so, all problems will be resolved." This is the point of the message today. If personally the covenant has restored in you, then God will work according to the covenant. God works according to the covenant, that is why there is only one thing for you to do. And that is to follow the word. And when that becomes your covenant, then naturally it will become your prayer. Because that is God's word, naturally that will be your prayer as well. That is why you must always have the mentality to follow God's word and to receive His word. That is how this covenant will become the answer to your life. In the end, this covenant will not only become the answer, but also it will become the method and conclusion in your life. If you can know this truth, what would you pray for? And rightfully so, you'll pray "God, please give me your word." You'll surely pray God, "Please give me the covenant." Let that be the word. That is so rightful. It is not the exaggeration to say that this is the only prayer. Until you receive the personal covenant from God, this is the only prayer that you should pray for. And once this becomes your own covenant, then there is nothing for you to do pray for except for this. The answer has no choice but to come and you don't need to worry about anything else because miracle will take place. This is your life. When this becomes your covenant, it will be your prayer to which it will become the center of your life. And you can live your life holding to the fundamental covenant of Christ and the personal covenant He has given to you. That is why you must hold to, confirm, confess, and proclaim this every day. You must be able to enjoy it, have hope in it, and this is the life of those who believe in Jesus. Think about Joseph. He received a dream. And that is how he only spoke about that dream throughout his life. When you hold onto the word, that is how the guidance of Holy spirit will be at work. That is when God's kingdom will be established upon you to which Satan's kingdom will be diminished. And you will continuously be set free from all curses. And all that your physical snares will all be liberated according to God's time schedule. You are not just being liberated; you can come out with great possession for the sake of world evangelization. When this covenantal blood continuously become your covenant, then works will continuously arise. And from there, God will continuously give you the word and what you must specifically do. If you have received the covenant, then now you are prepared. So may today be the day that you receive the covenant. So, the preparation has now concluded and finished, and that is why it is the same as God has prepared and concluded all things for you. So, all you have to do is continuously put it in your spiritual act by enjoying and confessing the covenant, it is not done by your own efforts. Then the promising word will be actually fulfilled upon your life and the field to which that is the answer.

And this answer will be connected to 237 nations and world evangelization. That is how your life will become a masterpiece. May you will become a person of the covenant. May you organize it and may you firmly hold to the prayer topics.

1. Do whatever He tells you.

The first point we will look at is to do whatever He tells you. Today's scripture is very well known verse in which the water was transformed into wine. It is recorded in verse 5. Mary did not commend the servants. This was the confession of her faith. Mary spoke to the servants, "Do whatever He tells you." It was confession of faith. Mary knew Jesus very well. She has her fiancé, Joseph. But she was not able to come together with him. But she was able to conceive a child of the Holy spirit. But Mary truly believes that it does not matter what the people of the world may say, He is God Himself. And Mary firmly believes that He is Messiah that has been promised to come and save Israel. That is why she was able to speak these things with assurance. It is because He is God, and He is Christ Himself. Mary tells her servants, "Do whatever He tells you to do, for all problems will be resolved. When you truly know Christ, you will be able to say the same thing. These are such rightful words. The main point is, do you truly know Christ? May you all come to the answer of Christ today. Mary knew who Christ was with assurance. That is why Mary says, "Do whatever He tells you." And We have received the word as well. All we have to do is follow the word. There is nothing else for you to do except follow the word. That is Mary's confession. In verse 3, Mary tells Jesus that we have no more wine. And in verse 4, Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does this have to do with me? My hour has not yet come." So, Mary was not His mother. She was the woman. Because he does not have a biological father. Even though His hour has not yet come at that time, He was able to a miracle and resolve the problem. And it was the best wine of all wines. Why did Jesus allow the miracle to arise even when He confess that my hour has not yet come? It has not clearly recorded in Bible, so we may never know. What are the possibilities for Him to make this miracle? In my opinion, I believe that it is because of her confession of faith. Why is that? It is because miracles and answers will only be given through the confession of the Christ. Mary correctly knew who Jesus was. That is why she was able to confess her faith before Him. I believe that this may be one of the many reasons. What is the method for the word to realistically be applied to your life? For you to hold onto, confess, proclaim, and enjoy it. Mary did exactly that. She holds onto God's word, and she simply confess it to which Jesus answered. But the Catholicism just misuse this passage. They believe that because Mary has spoken the word, that is why Jesus has done what He was told to do. That is why many of them beg to Mary. However, that is such foolish words. What Mary exactly did in today's scripture? It is not even a request or prayer; it was her confession of her faith. She just said that there is no more wine to Jesus, and she turns around and she tells her confession of her faith to her servants. And in Romans 14:12, it says, "So then, each of us will give an account of himself to God." It means they are able to report the things truthfully to God. And likewise, you must be able to do whatever He tells you by the word has given. May this blessing be upon you. If you hold to the covenant, that is the word God has given to you. Then, God simply does exactly according to the word He has spoken to you. And through that, all the force of darkness will crumble. That is why the covenant that you hold onto will be fulfilled exactly as he has said to you. Jesus is the Christ, the answer to all. He has set us free from all curses. He has crushed the serpent's head. This is our covenant. Mary came to the conclusion. All she has to do is whatever Jesus tells her to do. That is exactly what you must do. May you be like this as well. And even today, as you come to church, you must pray that God, please give me your word. It is simple. All you have to do is according to His words and scriptures in the Bible. You must be the one who receive His word. And you must be the one that lives centered on His word. Even today, you have come and gathered to receive His word. You must pray, "God, please give me your word for the upcoming week." The moment you come inside this sanctuary, you must confess that Jesus is my Christ, the son of the living God, all the force of darkness are completely bound, and the doors of world evangelization will be opened. And pray holding onto this fundamental prayer, and then right after that, you must go inside of the specific prayer. And just do according to the word you have received. As you continuously do this, little and small miracles and answers will take place and as that continuously grows, that will become such a great answer and turning point within your life. That is when such a great answer will be given to you, or very important word will hit your heart. May this blessing be upon you. Do according to His word.

2. God's glory

Second point we will look at is God's glory. The purpose of the miracles is for the sake of God's glory. Of course, it is different substance of the water and the wine. How is it possible that water turns into wine? God is working upon these miracles for the sake of His own glory. God not only reveals His glory, but also it becomes such an important answer to you. That is how all the people around you will be able to see and say that it is all by the work of Jesus. That is recorded in verse 11 today. "This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee, and manifested his glory. And his disciples believed in him." That is why miracles and answers are very important to your faith. And to confirm that Jesus is truly your Christ, it is all by the miracles and answers. It is very important for you to confirm that God is living now. As he is manifesting His glory, also He gives such important answers.

Think about the Red Sea. That is split into half before Moses. Enemies were chasing them with weapons. Israelites had no place to go because there were enemies behind and there was a great ocean in front of them. But what will happen if God split the Red Sea into half and they were able to walk? That is how God was able to reveal His glory. Israelites were walking in the dry land while walking within the Red Sea that was split, but the opponents put to death by the water. It is the same when the Manna came down from above. Israelites came out with some doughs of flour for their sake, but after 2 months, they had nothing to eat. But there were Manna for them to eat. Manna came from the above. God did that every day for 40 years. It is outstanding. That is how God is able to give the answer to the question, "God truly exists?" God is giving the answer by revealing such word like this to those questions, "What was the work that God does?" God does not have to explain Himself. He is revealing who He is through the miracles. And it is same with the miracle of the water that turn into the wine. To the disciples that have many doubts and were suspicious, Jesus was able to reveal it to say that He is God. No long explanation is needed. It is all by one miracle. It says that the water turns into wine. Then, who is it? It is impossible to mankind. But He does not need any ingredient. He just proclaimed the word, and it was done. Then, who is He? That must be your faith. This must be your spiritual strength. You will be able to be victorious and conquer all things with the faith alone. The world is filled with many spiritual problems, and we just need to end all the spiritual problems. And that is when it will truly begin. May this blessing be upon to you all. You must keep that inside of your heart and imprint that Jesus is your Christ, the answer to all. This is what is recorded in the Bible. If you simply hold onto the covenant as your own, then doors of your life will be opened. It is the promise of the Bible that says. If you simply enjoy this, then all the doors has never been opened will be opened for you. Satan's kingdom will be diminished, and you will be set free from all the curses. This is God's promise to you. Just like it was recorded in Exodus, if you simply hold onto the covenant, then the same work will take place upon to you. God's word is living. That word was living in the past, and even now the word is living now. That is why you must be able to hold to it. So, what happened on that night? The covenantal blood of Passover on that night has taken place. You must continuously do this work. There is no other answer that God has given to you. Ans this is only one answer that God has given to you. All those promises exist for the sake of Christ. And even today's miracle was for the sake of Christ. The goal was to testify that Jesus is Christ. It is all contained in Christ. This is the fundamental problem that you must hold to for the rest of your life. If you use other method other than Christ, that is religion. That is why God will give the personal covenant for those who hold to this. He is the fundamental of all words. May be the blessed week in which you can receive God's continuous word. May you all be the person of the covenant.
