

Promise regarding the Promise (Ex. 24:1-11)

May this be the time of worship where you once again confirm of Christ and be victorious. Today's message is entitled The Promise Regarding the Promise. God's promises are His words. God says that He has promised His word to us and that is the blood of the covenant. It means that He has promised all these words to us through the blood of the covenant. That is the precious blood of the cross. May this be your covenant once again. God gave the covenant to mankind who fell into original sin. Many who do not believe may question what this is. If you incorrectly hear it, it may seem like strange words to you, however, God has given this to us all. For the believers these are very important words because they face and fall into original sin all problems have been bestowed upon them. Yet, God has given the answer to that and it is the covenant. That is Christ and the precious blood of the cross. It says in today's scripture that the blood was shared upon God and the people. It means that we are one inside the blood. He has given this as the solution to all problems that derive from original sin. Those who do not hold to the answer may have faith but have no choice but to wander. It's an extreme explanation to say that all mankind must come to the answer to this as they live their life on earth. If not they have no choice but to be lost and wander. They try with their diligence and effort and see that it was all in vain. May you place this inside of your heart and confirm it once again. It is one of the conclusions of the Bible that if you hold to the covenant and live by the covenant you will receive answers that were written in the Bible. Surely enough, God will give you all the words that correlate and connect to His desires and slowly His word will be fulfilled according to it. The seven remnants are witnesses to this. All the people of the covenant who were inside of this, will be able to see this time schedule upon them. We all know the gospel and we know that the gospel is the God given answer. We all know that the gospel is Jesus Christ and the three offices of Christ that have overcome the fundamental problems. That is why we correctly know that we must hold to this as the answer. Yet, there are not lots of people who are able to apply this to their lives. Also, there are many of us who are not able to put this into practice easily. For God's word is living and active. That is why you need something that is specific as you live your life. Last week we saw the Bible scripture of the woman who committed adultery. Of course, Jesus can use his strength to resolve this matter for her. Jesus has the power to move his single finger and put all the people to death. However, that's not what Jesus did. He did it by His word. He said, "let him who is without sin among you be the first to throw the stone at her." It was such simple words but at that moment when He proclaimed that word all of it was resolved at once. That is God's authority of His word. Of course, Jesus Himself is God, that is why He has that authority in Him. God's word is living and active and at work even now. That is why He does all things according to His word. God does everything by His word, that is why you need a specific method for you to enjoy Christ and it must be an accurate method for you. The simpler it is, the easier it is to enjoy. This is my own opinion, however, the covenantal prayer that I always emphasize is a great tool and method for you to enjoy Christ. It has been at least eight to nine years since I have been writing the covenantal prayer to confess that Jesus is my Christ. I've received many small and big answers and God has opened my spiritual eyes as well. During the hardships that I faced in my pastoral ministry, by God's grace I was able to be revived. If God did not pour that grace upon me I would have faced my own death. There are many things I was so thankful for because he allowed me to realize and gave me many answers. During the hardships of our church the atmosphere changed and God opened up many important doors of mission for Latin America. In the past I thought to myself, if only the church was revived it would be a great miracle. To that extent, that work didn't take place. To be honest, I was in great difficulties. In the past, on the first day of the year I prayed to God pleading to have at least fifty newcomers and for church revival to take place. I had faith and assurance that it would take place. I thought to myself every year that at least fifty newcomers would come to church. I prayed until October of that year but not a single person came to church. Then in the month of October I changed my prayer topic to allow at least thirty newcomers. I prayed until December 31st pleading to God to allow at least thirty new believers at our church. It is because I had faith since He is the almighty God and that He would allow at least thirty new believers to come the next following year. Yet, not a single person came and the church was still facing hardships. Then by coincidence I began to write the covenantal prayer and after two years changes began to take place. I personally was able to see many changes arising in me. In the past, there were many financial difficulties inside of the church that is why the director of the finance department had no choice but to get loans. But now we are overflowing with financial blessings. It is truly amazing how overturning began to take place within every aspect of the church. I received precious grace personally and spiritually. One day I began to truly enjoy Christ. In the past, it was just mere lip service that I confessed. But one day, by his grace I was able to truly confess of Christ. I was truly stunned by it. I was so thankful to God. That is when I was able to gain the strength and it was all taking place by God's time, it could never be done with my own heart. I do believe this is my eternal answer from God. Along the way, God has given me the word of the resurrection message. I was truly thankful for that and I really confessed before God. The first message of the resurrection message is Matthew 28:16-20. The most important word from that is to go therefore and make disciples of all nations. Next is Mark 16:15-20. The most important content from that is healing. John 21 speaks about the remnant movement to feed the young lamb. Acts 1:8 is to go to the very end for the sake of missions, to save the 237 nations. I was able to see the 237 healing and summit all come from the four resurrection messages. Reverend Ryu continuously spoke about world evangelization and at the end, he concludes with 237 healing and summit. What's more important was that I had faith in it. I have faith that through our church members disciples will rise. I have faith that the remnant disciples and the multi-ethnic disciples will rise. Nothing else is needed, just simply hold to the covenant and pray. I have faith that the work of healing will arise. I have faith that the true remnant movement will arise. I have faith that we will go to the very end of Latin America to go and save the 237 nations. I had faith in the past, but I am able to see that I did not have true faith in it. But now it is completely different. Now I will live my life holding to this. I will live my life holding

to the promise that God has given to me of Christ and the four resurrection messages. I have faith that everything in my life will come from this covenant. God gives these promises to all that have faith in him, but yet he has personally given this to me as my own covenant. I do believe that I will begin with this and I will head towards 237. I do believe that from here I will be able to transcend time and space. I have faith that when I enjoy this covenant the blessing of God's throne will be upon me. I question, why did God give this grace to me? But yet, there is only one reason for that. The reason why it is taking place for me is that at least once throughout the day, I confess that Jesus is my Christ whether it takes place or not. It is the rightful work that we all should do. When that day comes, where you are able to truly confess to God, the true works will begin within you. It is not by your time schedule, it is by God's time schedule whether it will take place or not for you. This is what God has promised. What did God promise through? The blood, He promised through his own life. He has given the eternal and complete answer which is Jesus Christ to all those who have fallen inside original sin. That is why you must all live this life. If you are not living this life, you are greatly deceived. You will be at loss. Whether it takes place or not is in God's hands. All you have to do is to do it. May the blessing be upon you to do it.

1. The Promise Regarding the Promise

The first point we will look at is the Promise Regarding the Promise. Today's scripture speaks about the word which signifies that it is by the blood. This has all taken place in Mount Sinai. In verse 3, it says, "Moses came and told the people all the words of the Lord and all the rules. And all the people answered with one voice and said, "All the words that the Lord has spoken we will do." And in verse 4-5, "Moses wrote down all the words of the Lord. He rose early in the morning and built an altar at the foot of the mountain, and twelve pillars, according to the twelve tribes of Israel. And he sent young men of the people of Israel, who offered burnt offerings and sacrificed peace offering of oxen to the Lord." And in verse 6, "Moses took half of the blood and put it in basins, and half of the blood he threw against the altar." In verse 7, "Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it in the hearing of the people. All that the Lord has spoken we will do, and we will be obedient." In verse 8, "Moses took the blood and threw it on the people and said, "Behold the blood of the covenant that the Lord has made with you in accordance with all these words." This is the main point of today's scripture. God's word is the promise. It is the promise that if you keep his word, he will promise and fulfill it. By the blood, he has promised it to us all. In verse 9, "Then Moses and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel went up." They were able to eat and drink with the Lord and the Lord did not lay his hands on them. Man was able to see God, they would be put to death on the spot. It is the blood of the covenant, to which they will not face death when they see God face to face, but yet they will receive salvation and be saved. It records that because they had the blood of the covenant, God did not lay a hand on them. This is the summary of today's scripture. God's word is the promise he has given to us. Today's message is that all the promises that he has given to us are through the blood he has given to us. God says that he will keep this promise to the point where he will stake his life for it. This is the proclamation that he has completed it all on the precious blood of Jesus Christ. And you know Genesis 3:15. God promised Abraham two things. He promised a vast nation. And then he said that his offspring will be numerous as the stars. He also promised that he would be given the land that he is given. Abraham questions God, "How will I know that you will keep these promises?" God tells him to bring three animals before Him. He says to prepare on His behalf. He was able to break the animals to pieces. As Abraham was waiting for the Lord, it was God himself who passed by the pieces. Whenever the promise is made, it requires both to go through it, but it was God alone who passed through it. It is the same as today's message. God is saying that "This is the covenant I will keep. There is no reason for you to die on your behalf. All you have to do is enjoy and give all the glory to me." This is today's message. That is how you can understand the scripture of the covenant in the promising Word he has given. What signifies all of this is the blood of the covenant. God says, "By my own life, I will keep all that I have promised to you." Matthew 26:28 recorded the last message of Jesus in the last Passover. "For this is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins." By the covenant, you are in the blood of the covenant. When you enjoy the covenant, the promising Word will be fulfilled to you. You want the desire to be fulfilled, and that is how no one will be able to block you. What is the method to that? All you have to do is confess and enjoy the blood of the covenant. That is how God will give you His Word. Because you know the gospel, God will fulfill His word that he has given to you and the doors of evangelism will be opened. The door to your life, evangelism, and mission will be opened as well. That is the method of your life God did not give you anything else. He gave you the covenant. It is Genesis 3:15, "The offspring will crush the serpent's head." When you do Only of this blood of the covenant, you will receive the answer of Uniqueness. This could come at once, or little by little to you. Within your life there will be the miracles of Recreation in your life. May this be your covenant once again. May you hold to this as your covenant. When you enjoy, the 237 will be upon you and you will be able to transcend time and place, all within this covenant. The blessing of the throne can never be upon you when you are not within the covenant. God has promised you one thing. With this one thing alone, all things are promised. I bless you all in the name of the Lord that you will be able to confirm and be in the depths of this.

For you to uncover is the moment when you have faith in it. You must be able to uncover the covenant within you. You must not only end with having faith, but enjoy it and hold it. It is far better for you to know it, but if you do not hold to it, work will not arise. When the covenant is uncovered to you, then it means the covenant will become yours. That is personalization. If the covenant is not personalized then it may mean that you are still outside of it. You will receive tremendous answers and psisiritual strength just by knowing it, but this means that you are not able to dwell inside of it. You must go inside of it. How can you go deeper inside of it if you know it? You must start confessing and writing it. There is no need for it as long as you enjoy Christ. This is from my own experience, but simply listening to the message does not mean that you will have assurance to it. You must be able to listen to the message, not taking it light-heartedly. Even if you do pray, you must give a sincere heart of prayer. That is when God will give you his time schedule. After you listen to the message, may you recognize the method, even if it is theoretical. This is the start of you being guided by the Word. As you theoretically organize the messages, God will give you the Word even more. May you begin the start of truly confessing that Jesus is the Christ if you sincerely come to the answer of Jesus Christ. If there is anything that comes before worship, may you get rid of it. This is because worship is the answer for you to enjoy Christ. There should be nothing that is ahead of worship. That is all incorrect if it is even a small hindrance even if you have received training. You must approach worship with a sincere heart. You may give your own desire and request through prayer. God does not want you to be within that prayer because He has given you His tremendous authority and power. "I have given you the name of Jesus Christ so bind all of the darkness. Bind all the forces of darkness in the name of Jesus Christ because it is the offspring of woman that will crush the serpent's head." I do believe that when you come to this resolution, God will give you spiritual progress in your life. You must gather your heart before God. Whether it takes place or not, you must set a time and place to pray before God. If you do not have time, write down the prayer topics before God or look up words that correlate to God. For new believers, may you receive the prayer that you must confess before God through the ministers that are leading you. These are my own thoughts, but as I write the covenant prayer, I wondered if the 24 hour prayer comes upon me, I do believe that writing the covenant prayer would be a hindrance to that. It is because I believe it is a higher level of making that deep confession before God than simply writing it. And I thought to myself, "If I simply write it, it will be a hindrance to making that deep confession before God." To be honest, it is not 24 hours for me yet. But I do believe that as I am continuously writing and making the confession of Christ every day, I have my own prayer that I am able to give to God. So, for a couple of days, I stopped writing the covenantal prayer. Of course, I felt at ease because it takes about an hour for me to write it. And I have this urge to write the covenantal prayer every day, yet I was at ease not writing it. But after a couple days, I felt that I was wrong. So I began to write it again. That's when I had a realization. Of course, a deep confession is a deep confession, but for me, writing down every single word is planting it within me. I realized that I have to write down each word of the covenantal prayer and plant it within me. And Satan is at work. In a variety of ways, he is always attacking us. That is why I came to a resolution in my heart that I will write the covenantal prayer for the rest of my life. May the blessing be upon you in which you go inside of Christ more deeply as you go through the incidents and experiences God gives you. So may you set the time to pray. If you think the covenantal prayer is too long for you, shorten it. Or if there is any other word that hits your heart, write that. For you to go into deep prayer is the next matter. I'm sorry to say this, but I don't think there is a single person that has gone inside of deep prayer in America. Before you even reach deep prayer, the covenant must become yours. You must be the one that enjoys, holds, and confesses the covenant first. That is the start for it all. And at least once a day, you need a set time to give a sincere and earnest prayer to God before going into deep prayer. So, even now, you must confess, "Jesus, You are my Christ." And if you are a true believer, you should be in tears as you make this confession. This confession is so rightful. If you are doing something else, you are being greatly deceived. These two messages God has given to me are the fundamental and center of my walk of faith. And I always confess, "God, thank You so much for giving me these two covenants that have become the center of my life." To be honest, I didn't really understand Daniel resolving in his heart. I was able to imagine it, but I couldn't understand it. I knew that he didn't just resolve in his heart, but I couldn't understand why he did that. But now, just like Daniel had resolved in his heart, I am able to do the same. I have the heart to give my entire life to God and stake my life for the sake of God's work. I questioned why this didn't take place in the past. It was because Satan was blocking me. Satan was continuously working, and I needed to stop him, yet I couldn't do that. And whenever matters arose, I would simply confess empty words as lip service. But now, it is completely different from then. Why? It is because I am confessing Christ. The moment I was able to truly enjoy Christ, Satan was cast away. The answer is Jesus Christ. The answer is not Satan being cast away but enjoying Christ. I believe God will give 24 hours through this. I said this before on Friday, but I was inside of 24 hours at least one day. I believe God was giving me a taste. Of course, I don't put any effort into that. I just simply hold it to heart. And I believe 25 hours will come upon me because 24 hours took place. And I never believe that I can call that the blessing of the throne just because of one answer. Even the small prayer answer we receive is the transcending of time and space. But I don't think God merely made up words like that just for a small answer received. There is a spiritual realm that those who truly enjoy Christ 24 hours go into. That is where we must head towards. That is why we must partake in world evangelization. Even today, there is one thing you must do: you must hold onto Jesus Christ as your covenant. And with that, you must make the confession today, "Jesus, You are my Christ." When you do that continuously, you will spiritually grow. When I first listened to trainings, I always thought, "I wish I had my lifelong prayer topic just like Reverend Ryu." It's been more than 20 years. And not just merely the content or topic that I will pray about for the rest of my life, but the lifelong prayer that comes inside of my heart and becomes my covenant. May this blessing be upon us all. Once again, may Jesus Christ become your covenant. The spiritual authority will be given to you, and your answers will be different. You will have conquest, and you will be victorious. You will no longer be oppressed by your life. You will be able to take advantage of this. For the sake of this, God has given us the historical gospel. It is because the gospel is the start to all. You must hold to the accurate gospel. And you must have the correct understanding of who Jesus Christ is. I believe that God will give us this grace.
