The Person that God Desires

Acts 1:1-8

There are many who testify to the ways to achieve success. However, that is for success in the world. To achieve true success is to be a person that God desires. A person that God desires is the one that solely does what God desires. Then, that person will conquer and have victory over the world. A person that God desires will stand as a witness to save many and leave behind important disciples.

1. A person of Christ (1)

- 1) A person that knows and enjoys Christ
- 2) A person that testifies and saves the world
- 3) A person that seeks the disciples to go to the ends of the world
- 4) A person that stake their lives and does 24
- 5) A person that will leave behind a meaning life

2. The things pertaining to the kingdom of God

- 1) By the Gospel, mankind has been saved from curse
- 2) God's work, time schedule
- 3) A person that holds to it as the covenant - God's desire
- 4) A person that has the covenant - My covenant
