

The Church

Matthew 16:13-19

The church is very important in the world. Many people have their own opinions of the church, but the church is important in God's eyes. The church is God's people that God has called through Jesus Christ. Therefore, there is important authority and commission in that. God speaks through the church and fulfills it and His will is relayed through the church. If the church does not exist, then the world will come to an end. The world exists because of the church.
