The Evangelist

1 Corinthians 2:1-5

Before you begin anything, it is important for one to know their identity. Those who have the identity of the evangelists must conquer the spiritual authority first. They must never give up or be discouraged in the hardships that they face. There is no way one will succeed in evangelism if they do not continue it. Those who know, enjoy, and relay the Gospel will be attached to disciples. God will lead the circumstances and environments.
