One Church, One Region, One Nation

Acts 1:1-8

The church is very important to the believers. The churches on earth are very important to God. The church is the foundation and the watchman of God. The world will perish if the churches do not exist. To keep and watch over the church is to save the world. If you are upright before God, then the world will enjoy the peace that is given from God. There are significant meanings behind the devotion and service for the church. Unseen to the eyes, the believers receive protection from the church and blessings.
